

BECOME A MASM VOLUNTEER TODAY!

What is The Mid-America Science Museum (MASM) Volunteer Association?

The MASM Volunteer Association's mission is to help people understand science and its relationship to our lives. We seek to spark curiosity, enhance scientific knowledge, and encourage lifelong learning through our exhibits, workshops, and school-related activities. Volunteers are essential! The museum is a non-profit organization with a small budget and a limited number of staff. Volunteers are truly needed if we are to give our visitors the best experience possible!

Who can become a MASM Volunteer?

We need people who....

- Desire to contribute to their community
- Enjoy sharing knowledge
- Enjoy taking challenges
- Are enthusiastic about learning
- Take responsibility seriously

We have opportunities for adults and students (ages 12 and up) and we can accommodate various physical limitations. Does that sound like YOU?

What would you like to do?

There's something for everyone... and we'll provide the training if you provide the motivation!

- Engage visitors to interact with exhibits
- Assist with educational programs
- Help with clerical tasks
- Do grounds and gardening tasks
- Provide educational and fun component to exhibits
- Conduct demonstrations
- Help with special events
- Work in the Snack Bar*

*The Snack Bar is open daily during summer hours, and is entirely operated by volunteers. All profits are used to fund new exhibits and other MASM projects.

What are the benefits to YOU of being a MASM Volunteer?

- The satisfaction of acquainting visitors with Arkansas' largest interactive science museum
- Receiving discounts in our Museum Store
- Earning free admission to MASM for you and your family
- Seeing the delight of visitors as they learn and grow
- FUN!!!
- Serving your community
- Expanding your own knowledge
- Developing leadership skills
- Meeting new people who share your interests
- Earning complimentary MASM membership after 100 hours of volunteer service
- Complimentary lunch in the Snack Bar while volunteering
